1 Plaintiffs/Counter-Defendants Bennion & Deville Fine Homes, Inc. (“B&D
2 Fine Homes”) and Bennion & Deville Fine Homes SoCal, Inc. (“B&D SoCal”), 3 along with Counter-Defendants Robert L. Bennion (“Bennion”) and Joseph R.
4 Deville (“Deville”) (collectively, the “B&D Parties”), hereby file this 5 Memorandum in Opposition to Defendant/Counterclaimant Windermere Real 6 Estate Services Company’s (“WSC”) Application for Right to Attach Orders and 7 Orders for Issuance of Writs of Attachment (the “Application”).

8 I. INTRODUCTION

9 WSC’s Application is more gamesmanship than a legitimate pursuit of writs 10 of attachment. This lawsuit was commenced more than 14 months ago. Without 11 any explanation for the delay or prior notice of its intended Application, WSC filed 12 its Application after 7 p.m. on Monday, November 21, 2016, providing the B&D 13 Parties less than one week – during the week of Thanksgiving – in which to 14 respond. More importantly, the Application is conclusory, unsubstantiated, and 15 falls far short of the strict statutory prerequisites that must be met for a court to 16 order the extraordinary remedy of pre-judgment attachment. As set forth in more 17 detail in the Legal Argument section, below, the Application should be denied on 18 each of the following independent grounds:

19 First, WSC’s Application fails to consider the B&D Parties’ affirmative 20 claims – along with those of co-Plaintiff Windermere Services Southern California, 21 Inc. (“Services SoCal”)<sup>1</sup> – for breach of the franchise agreements and Area 22 Representation Agreement, and the resulting damages to these parties in excess of 23 $4.2 million. [See D.E. 31; Declaration of Kevin A. Adams (“Adams Decl.”), Ex.
24 L, Ex. A, pp. 1, 3.] Not only do the B&D Parties’ contract claims completely offset 25 the amounts WSC seeks to attach through its Application, but the B&D Parties’ 26 claims also operate as complete defenses to WSC’s contract claims. WSC’s failure

27 <sup>1</sup> B&D Fine Homes, B&D SoCal, and Services SoCal are collectively referred 28 as “Plaintiffs” herein.

1 to account for the B&D Parties' affirmative claims is fatal to WSC's requested 2 relief.

3 Second, WSC fails to show, as it must, that the amount alleged is a fixed 4 and readily ascertainable sum. A cursory review of WSC's proposed attachment 5 orders shows that the amount WSC seeks to attach far exceeds its claimed (but 6 unsubstantiated) damages in the case. According to the declaration testimony of 7 WSC's CFO, Mark Oster, WSC is only claiming damages in the amount of 8 $1,354,407.49 plus attorneys' fees and costs. [D.E. 72-7, p. 16.] However, WSC 9 has asked the Court to enter attachment orders against (1) B&D SoCal in the 10 amount of $698,495.31 [D.E. 72-4, p. 2], (2) B&D Fine Homes in the amount of 11 $1,501,744.72 [D.E. 72-3, p. 2], (3) Bennion in the amount of $1,777,323.76 [D.E.
12 72-1, p. 2], and (4) Deville in the amount of $1,777,323.76. [D.E. 72-2, 2.] Thus, 13 notwithstanding its pursuit of only $1.3 million in damages in this case, WSC is 14 asking the Court to secure the astronomical amount of $5,754,887.55. The 15 requested amount simply cannot be ascertained or justified based upon the claims 16 in his case.

17 Likewise, WSC seeks to attach its entire attorneys' fees and costs ($422,916)
18 against each of the B&D Parties, thereby multiplying the alleged debt of the B&D 19 Parties by 400% to more than $1.6 million. Again, this requested attachment 20 amount cannot be readily ascertained and must be rejected.

21 Third, WSC has failed to show, as it must, that the B&D Parties cannot 22 prevail on their defenses to WSC's counterclaims. The B&D Parties have asserted 23 the affirmative defenses of offset and justification based on the dealings of the 24 parties and the constructive termination of the Area Representation Agreement 25 without cause, notice, or opportunity to cure. Additionally, the B&D Parties have 26 other defenses excusing their performance under the franchise agreements, in 27 particular, WSC's surreptitious sale of its flagship technology, TouchCMA, to 28 competitors of the B&D Parties in Southern California notwithstanding its

1 representation that no such sale to a competitor would occur within the B&D 2 Parties' geography.

3 Fourth, the Application must be denied because WSC has failed to 4 adequately describe the property it seeks to attach as to Bennion or Deville. [See
5 D.E. 72-1, p. 2; D.E. 72-2, p. 2.] The Application asks the Court to issue 6 attachment orders for: "All property owned by Counter Defendant: real property, 7 personal property, equipment, motor vehicles, chattel paper, negotiable and other 8 instruments, securities, deposit accounts, safe deposit boxes, accounts receivable, 9 and general intangibles." (Id.) This overbroad description lacks sufficient 10 specificity required by the California Code of Civil Procedure to place Bennion
11 and Deville on notice as to what property WSC seeks to attach. See CCP § 12 484.020) ("Where the defendant is a natural person, the description of the property 13 shall be reasonably adequate to permit the defendant to identify the specific 14 property sought to be attached."). Thus, the Application as to Bennion and Deville 15 must be rejected.

16 Fifth, the attachment also may not issue because it the Application was filed 17 for an improper purpose. In addition to the WSC's attempt to squeeze the B&D 18 Parties' counsel in having to respond to the Application on the short Thanksgiving 19 week, WSC has filed its Application seeking to attach an amount that far exceeds 20 WSC's claimed damages in this case. A writ of attachment is sought for an 21 improper purpose where the applicant seeks an amount that is excessive. See 22 Pimentel v. Houk, 101 Cal.App.2d 884, 886-888 (1951) (suggesting that an 23 allegation of an attachment of an excessive amount would constitute a sufficient 24 allegation of use of the process for an improper purpose); see also Fairfield v.
25 Hamilton 206 Cal.App.2d 594, 603 (1962) (noting in dicta that cases alleging 26 attachment for a greatly excessive amount have been treated as actions for abuse of 27 process). Thus, the Application should be summarily denied.

28 Finally, in the unlikely event that the Court issues any right to attach order,

1 WSC should be required to post a substantial bond to cover the damages that the 2 B&D Parties would suffer as a result of attachment. If the attachment were to 3 issue, the bond required by WSC should be in an amount at least equivalent to the 4 total amount that WSC seeks to attach – i.e. of $5,754,887.55.

5 II. LEGAL ARGUMENT

6 A. A Writ Of Attachment Is Subject To Strict Statutory 7 Requirements

8 Statutory regulations relating to attachment proceedings “must be strictly 9 followed[.]” Sousa v. Lucas, 156 Cal. 460, 463 (1909). No attachment procedure 10 may be ordered by the court other than in accordance with what is specifically 11 provided in the statutes. Nakasone v. Randall, 129 Cal. App. 3d 757, 761 (1982).
12 In order to obtain a writ of attachment, California Code of Civil Procedure 13 (“CCP”) requires that the applicant (1) demonstrate that the claim is one upon 14 which an attachment may be issued, that is, a claim for money that is fixed or 15 readily ascertainable (CCP § 483.010); (2) establish the probable validity of the 16 claim; and (3) show that the attachment is not sought for a purpose other than the 17 recovery on the claim. CCP § 484.090(a)(1-3).

18 Each of the above elements must be shown by a preponderance of the 19 evidence. CCP § 484.050(b); Blastrac, N.A. v. Concrete Solutions & Supply, 678 20 F. Supp. 2d 1001, 1004 (C.D. Cal., 2010) (citing Loeb & Loeb v. Beverly Glen 21 Music, Inc., 166 Cal.App.3d 1110, 1116 (1985)). Given that it is such a harsh 22 remedy, the requirements for an attachment are “strictly construed against the 23 applicant.” Blastrac, supra, 678 F. Supp. 2d at 1004.

24 As explained below, WSC has not (and cannot) satisfy its burden to obtain a 25 writ of attachment.
26
27
28

1           B. WSC’s Application Should Be Denied Because It Fails To 2           Demonstrate “Probable Validity” Of Its Claims

3           In order to establish the “probable validity” element, WSC must show that it 4 is more likely than not it will obtain a judgment against each of the B&D Parties
5 for the amount claimed to be attached. Blastrac, supra, 678 F. Supp. 2d at 1005. A 6 court, in evaluating a motion for writ of attachment is to consider “the relative 7 merits of the positions of the respective parties and make a determination of the 8 probable outcome of the litigation.” Id. (citation omitted). Moreover, “[i]f an 9 applicant fails to rebut a factually supported defense that would defeat its claims, 10 the applicant has not established the ‘probable validity’ of those claims.” Id.
11 (manufacturer was denied writ of attachment because purchaser presented defenses 12 to manufacturer’s claims, including breach of contract by manufacturer, and 13 manufacturer did not dispute defenses); see Plata v. Darbu Enterprises, Inc, 2009 14 WL 3153747 (S.D. Cal. Sept. 23, 2009) (holding that applicant had not produced 15 sufficient information to rebut the opposing party’s defense and therefore had 16 failed to establish the probable validity of its claim); see also Furth v. Furth, 2011 17 WL 2149038, *8 (N.D. Cal. May 31, 2011) (finding applicant had not satisfied 18 burden of demonstrating probable validity of his claims by a preponderance of the 19 evidence based on applicant’s failure to address “basic tenets of contractual 20 interpretation combined with the limited factual record thus far”). In other words, 21 WSC must do more here than establish a prima facie case for breach of contract; it 22 “must also show that the defenses raised are ‘less than fifty percent likely to 23 succeed.” Blastrac, supra, 678 F.Supp.2d at 1005 (internal citations omitted, 24 emphasis added).

25           Here, WSC’s Application is fatally flawed as it attempts to establish a prima
26 facie claim for breach of contract by the B&D Parties without addressing the B&D 27 Parties’ factually supported affirmative claims or defenses. WSC contends that it 28 has “established the probable validity” of its counterclaims against the B&D

1 Parties for breach of the Coachella Valley Franchise Agreement (Count 1) and 2 breach of the SoCal Franchise Agreement (Count 3) by showing that the B&D
3 Parties ceased paying franchise fees and technology fees to WSC after July 2014.<sup>2</sup> 4 [Application, pp. 9:20-23, 7:17-19.] WSC further contends that it has shown the 5 probable validity of its counterclaim for breach of the Modification Agreement 6 (Count 4) because the B&D Parties exited the Windermere franchise system before 7 the five-year term had expired. [Application, pp. 7:1-7, 8:1-6.] However, WSC
8 makes no real effort to rebut the B&D Parties' legal justification for discontinuing 9 their payments to WSC and leaving the Windermere system early.

10 As explained in detail below, the B&D Parties have asserted several 11 affirmative claims and defenses that legally (and understandably) excused their 12 continued performance under the agreements with WSC. WSC's utter failure to 13 rebut these affirmative claims and defenses defeats the "probable validity" element 14 needed for a writ to issue. Accordingly, WSC's Application must be denied.

15 1. WSC's breaches identified in the B&D Parties' contract claims
16 excused the B&D Parties' performance

17 Plaintiffs – and not WSC – initiated this breach of contract action in 18 September of 2015. [D.E. 1.] B&D SoCal and B&D Fine Homes are pursuing 19 contract claims against WSC for WSC's (1) failure to take contractually required 20 action against Windermere Watch, (2) termination of Services SoCal as the area 21 representatives thereby negating Plaintiffs' 50% reduction in franchise fees, and 22 (3) termination of Services SoCal as the area representative without providing a 23 comparable replacement. [D.E. 31, see Counts 1-2, 5-6.] As explained below, these 24 actions by WSC were material breaches of the Coachella Valley Franchise

26 <sup>2</sup> All payments of franchise fees and technology fees were due on the 25th of 27 the following month. (Adams Decl., Ex. G (Oster Depo.), pp. 46:1-47:6.) Thus, the 28 July 2014 payment was not past due until after August 26, 2014. (Id., Ex. G, pp.
46:25-47:13.)

1 Agreement (as amended by the Modification Agreement) and the SoCal Franchise 2 Agreement (as amended by the Modification Agreement), thereby excusing the 3 B&D Parties subsequent obligations to pay fees and to remain in the Windermere 4 system for the full five-year term.

5 a. WSC failed to take “Commercially Reasonable” efforts 6 to combat Windermere Watch as required by the 7 Modification Agreement

8 During the course of the parties’ contractual relationships, a disgruntled 9 former Windermere client named Gary Kruger initiated an anti-marketing 10 campaign – under the name “Windermere Watch” – specifically designed to direct 11 defamatory statements, materials, and focused conduct against Windermere, its 12 franchisees, and real estate agents. (See e.g., Adams Decl. Ex. C (Baur Depo.), pp.
13 50:23-51-12, Ex. B (Drayna Depo., Vol. I), pp. 93:19-22; Declaration of Joseph R.
14 Deville (“Deville Decl.”), ¶¶ 12-16.) Mr. Kruger’s website (at 15 windermerewatch.com) would regularly appear as a top internet search result for 16 customers (existing and potential) when searching Google, Yahoo, or any other 17 search engine for the term “Windermere.” (Adams Decl., Ex. C (Baur Depo.), p.
18 52:1-20; Deville Decl., ¶¶ 13-14.) In the real estate industry, it is routine for 19 potential clients to select their real estate broker and/or agent based upon 20 information that is made available on the internet. (Deville Decl., ¶ 14.) The 21 prominent placement of Windermere Watch – and its anti-Windermere marketing 22 campaign – in the internet search results often diverted potential clients away from 23 Windermere’s brokers and agents. (Id.)

24 In addition to the website’s high search engine visibility expressing strong 25 anti-Windermere rhetoric, Mr. Kruger also regularly sent out mass mailings of 26 postcards and other materials containing anti-Windermere propaganda to residents 27 and potential clients in areas where new Windermere franchise locations were 28 scheduled to open. (Adams Decl., Ex. B (Drayna Depo.), pp. 174-175; Deville

1 Decl., ¶ 16.) The existence of Windermere Watch and its damaging effect on the 2 Windermere franchises in Southern California is not in dispute. (Adams Decl., Ex.
3 D (Teather Depo., Vol. I), pp. 72:9-82:11.) The loss of actual and potential clients 4 as a result of Windermere Watch’s negative marketing campaign ultimately forced 5 many agents to disassociate themselves from Windermere. (Deville Decl., ¶ 17.)

6 Although the executives and General Counsel of Windermere considered 7 Mr. Kruger to be “nuts,” “crazy,” and his anti-marketing campaign unflattering, 8 they did not consider Windermere Watch to be “far-reaching” or “damaging” to 9 the Windermere brand. (Adams Decl., Ex. B (Drayna Depo.), pp. 172:17-177:20, 10 Ex. A (Wood Depo.), p. 99:18-24; Ex. N (Jacobi Depo.) p. 145.) Because of this, 11 Windermere ultimately announced to its franchisees that the best course of action 12 was to “ignore” Mr. Kruger and Windermere Watch. (Adams Decl., Ex. B (Drayna 13 Depo.), pp. 104:5-114:15, Ex. 8.)

14 In 2012, the Windermere Watch website began to systematically list all of 15 the Windermere offices by name and address, the names of all Windermere agents 16 in those office, and the agents’ Department of Real Estate and/or California Bureau
17 of Real Estate numbers. (Adams Decl., Ex. H (Forsberg Depo.), pp. 57:6-58:9.)
18 Because of this, any internet searches for those agents or offices would bring up 19 the Windermere Watch website and its negative treatment of the Windermere 20 brand and its agents. (Adams Decl., Ex H (Forsberg Depo.), pp. 57:6-58:9, 72:11-21 19; Adams Decl., Ex. J (Fanning Depo.), pp. 76:14- 79:10, Ex. 148.) The attacks 22 by Mr. Kruger were becoming more personal over time causing public relations 23 issues and the loss of agents, clients, and listings for the B&D Parties. (Adams
24 Decl., Ex. K (Bennion Depo.), pp. 144-145, 169:18-24, 170:10-20; Deville Decl., ¶ 25 19.)

26 By late 2012, the harm caused by the growing Windermere Watch anti-27 marketing campaign nearly forced Bennion and Deville to leave the Windermere 28 system. (Adams Decl., Ex. B (Drayna Depo.), pp. 181:19-25, Exs. 24, 25; Deville

1 Decl., ¶ 20.) To keep Bennion and Deville (and their entities) in the Windermere 2 system, WSC offered to make several financial and operational concessions to the 3 parties' existing contractual relationships. These concessions are memorialized in 4 the December 18, 2012 Modification Agreement. [D.E. 72-6, Ex. H; Adams Decl., 5 Ex. B (Drayna Depo.), pp. 181:19-201:9; Deville Decl., ¶ 20.] In particular, WSC 6 promised to “make commercially reasonable efforts<sup>3</sup> to actively pursue counter-7 marketing, and other methods seeking to curtail the anti-marketing activities 8 undertaken by Gary Kruger, his Associates, Windermere Watch and/or the agents 9 of the foregoing persons.”<sup>4</sup> [D.E. 72-6, Ex. H, § 3(A) (emphasis added).]
10 Notwithstanding this contractual promise to make commercially reasonable effort 11 in order to keep the B&D Parties in the Windermere system, the evidence shows 12 that WSC made virtually no effort for nearly a year, and the commercial 13 reasonableness of the effort WSC made thereafter is suspect at best – thereby 14 breaching a material term of the Coachella Valley Franchise Agreement and SoCal 15 Franchise Agreement, as amended by the Modification Agreement.

16 On February 11, 2013, just weeks after entering into the Modification 17 Agreement, Bennion and Deville and their legal counsel participated in a 18 conference call with representatives of WSC to discuss the efforts that WSC 19 planned to undertake to combat Windermere Watch's anti-marketing campaign.
20 (See e.g., Adams Decl., Ex. B (Drayna Depo., Vol. I), pp. 202-205; Deville Decl., ¶ 21 23.) Notwithstanding this new contractual obligation “to make commercially

22 <sup>3</sup> WSC's General Counsel, Paul Drayna, testified that the term “commercially 23 reasonable efforts” meant “a level of effort that would be reasonable -- considered 24 reasonable by prudent business people in --under the circumstances.” (Adams 25 Decl., Ex. B (Drayna Depo.), pp. 199:9-201:4)

26 <sup>4</sup> Prior to the existence of the Modification Agreement, the parties' franchise 27 agreements already required WSC to take certain action (legal or otherwise) to 28 prevent infringement of the Windermere trademark or the related unfair competition faced by the B&D Parties in the Southern California region. [See D.E.
72-6, Ex. A (Section 4), Ex. F (Section 6).]

1 reasonable efforts,” the testimony of WSC’s executives and corporate 2 representatives revealed that WSC did nothing until October of 2013.

3 For instance, WSC’s CEO, Geoff Wood, testified that shortly after the 4 February 11, 2013 meeting, WSC’s executives concluded there was nothing else
5 they could do “and that the next step was to engage an SEO expert.” (Adams Decl., 6 Ex. A (Wood Depo.), pp. 293:2-20, 222:1-13.) However, it was not until October 7 of 2013 that WSC’s SEO expert made contact with the B&D parties with respect to 8 Windermere Watch. (Adams Decl., Ex. C (Baur Depo.), pp. 61:22-25, 201:16-17, 9 206:7-25, Exs. 130, 132.) Likewise, WSC’s Vice-President, Michael Teather, 10 testified that WSC made no new efforts to combat Windermere Watch in 2013 11 from those efforts the previous year. (Adams Decl., Ex. E (Teather Depo. Volume 12 II), pp. 80:19-81:17.) Mr. Teather explained that WSC did not meet with legal 13 counsel during the 2013 year to discuss what could be done about the Windermere 14 Watch website (Id.), and there were no communications between representatives of 15 WSC and Mr. Kruger during the 2013 year in an effort to put an end to the website.
16 (Adams Decl., Ex. E (Teather Depo., Vol. II), p. 82:12-83:1.) In fact, when asked 17 to “identify a single thing that [he] did after December 18, 2012 to combat 18 Windermere Watch,” Mr. Teather openly acknowledged that he could not identify 19 anything. (Adams Decl., Ex. D (Teather Depo., Vol. I), pp. 95:17-96:3.) WSC’s
20 director of marketing and designated corporate representative, Noelle Bortfeld, 21 testified that she could not recall any request by Mr. Wood that her department 22 undertake any effort with respect to Windermere Watch in 2013. (Adams Decl., 23 Ex. F (Bortfeld Depo.), p. 76:20-25.) In fact, Ms. Bortfeld could not recall any 24 proactive efforts undertaken by WSC with respect to Windermere Watch after 25 2010. (Id., pp. 74:2-75:24.) WSC’s general counsel, Paul Drayna, waited for more 26 than 13 months to contact outside counsel to evaluate potential legal action against 27 Windermere Watch. (Adams Decl., Ex. B (Drayna Depo., Vol. I), pp. 299:8-28 306:16, Ex. 50.) Incredibly, outside of some purported preliminary discussions

1 with an “SEO expert,” WSC’s executives and corporate representatives could not 2 attest to anything that WSC did to combat Windermere Watch until mid-October 3 2013, nearly a year after the Modification Agreement was signed.

4 Moreover, instead of communicating their effort (or lack thereof) to the 5 B&D Parties, WSC’s executives simply ignored numerous emails from Bennion 6 and Deville requesting updates on WSC’s plan to combat Windermere Watch.
7 (Deville Decl., ¶¶ 24-37, Exs. 1-6; see also, Adams Decl., Ex. B (Drayna Depo., 8 Vol. I), pp. 227:4-228:17, Ex. 27 (did not respond to the B&D Parties’ request for 9 an update on March 29, 2013), pp. 231:13-233:1, Ex. 28 (ignored the B&D Parties’ 10 request for an update on April 20, 2013), pp. 233:4-234:5, Ex. 29 (ignored the 11 B&D Parties’ request for an update on June 12, 2013), pp. 234:20-239:10, Ex. 30
12 (ignored the B&D Parties’ request for an update on July 31, 2013), pp. 293:12-13 296:13, Ex. 48 (ignored the B&D Parties’ request for an update on August 10, 14 2013).) Tellingly, WSC’s representatives refused on the basis of attorney/client 15 privilege to explain why they simply ignored the B&D Parties’ pleas for 16 information and support with respect to Windermere Watch. (See e.g., Adams 17 Decl., Ex. B (Drayna Depo., Vol. I), pp. 231:13-233:1, 295:19-20; Deville Decl., 18 ¶¶ 24-37.)

19 Additionally, the B&D Parties’ have retained franchise industry expert 20 Marvin Storm to serve as an expert witness in the case. (Adams Decl., Ex. M.)
21 After reviewing all of the depositions and files, Mr. Storm provided a report 22 outlining his opinions in the case. (Id.) Among other things, he concluded that 23 WSC “[f]ailed in trademark, brand and reputation management by not more 24 aggressively pursuing a resolution to the Windermere Watch public relations crisis 25 experienced by its franchisees.” (Id., p. 6.) This represents a clear breach of the 26 franchise agreements.

27 Ultimately, WSC’s failure to take action breached both of the parties’ 28 franchise agreements as amended by the Modification Agreement and left the

1 B&D Parties with no choice but to absorb a significant expense in combatting 2 Windermere Watch on their own. For instance, the B&D Parties, among other 3 things, hired several internet programmers and bloggers and devoted their time to 4 increasing Windermere's internet search engine rankings in an attempt to bury 5 Windermere Watch's online presence. (Deville Decl., ¶ 38.) The B&D Parties'
6 damages expert, Peter Wrobel, has identified more than $146,954 in unreimbursed 7 expenses to the B&D Parties for their efforts in combatting Windermere Watch.
8 (Adams Decl. Ex. L, Ex. A, pp. 1, 3.) This amount should now be reimbursed by 9 WSC. Additionally, WSC's express promise to take action against Windermere 10 Watch's anti-marketing campaign kept the B&D Parties in the Windermere system 11 beyond the 2012 year. (Deville Decl. ¶¶ 20-22.) During 2013, the B&D Parties 12 opened up two additional offices that they never would have opened had they 13 known that WSC was going to ignore its contractual agreement to combat 14 Windermere Watch. (Deville Decl., ¶ 46.) These locations resulted in a loss to the 15 B&D Parties of more than $1.4 million that they are seeking under their breach of 16 contract claims. (Adams Decl. Ex. L, Ex. A, pp. 1, 3.)

17 In an attempt to avoid this liability, WSC argues that a June 3, 2014 letter 18 from Mr. Teather to the B&D Parties' attorney, Robert Sunderland, somehow 19 relieved WSC of its obligation to take action against Windermere Watch.
20 (Application, pp. 12-13.) WSC's argument is flawed on several grounds. First, Mr.
21 Teather's phantom letter was never delivered to Mr. Sunderland or made available 22 to the B&D Parties until it was produced by WSC in this litigation. (Declaration of 23 Robert Sunderland ("Sunderland Decl."), ¶¶ 5-11; Deville Decl., ¶¶ 47-49.)
24 Second, even if the letter had been received by the B&D Parties, it is clearly a 25 unilateral, self-serving document that does not comport with the integration clause 26 in the Modification Agreement and therefore could not have amended the parties' 27 express agreement. [See D.E. 72-6, Ex. H, § 18 (The integration clause provides 28 that the "Agreement may only be modified if the modification is in writing and is

1 signed by the Party against whom enforcement is sought.”.)] Third, the promissory
2 note attached to the June 3, 2014 was never signed by the B&D Parties. (Deville
3 Decl., ¶47.) Fourth, it he June 3, 2014 letter was as important as WSC now 4 represents, the custom and practice was to send it via certified mail. This was not 5 done by WSC for reasons unknown to the B&D Parties. (Deville Decl., ¶ 47.)
6 Finally, even if the Modification Agreement did not contain an integration clause, 7 the overwhelming evidence will show that the parties’ discussions prior to June 3, 8 2014 concerned the B&D Parties’ demands that WSC’s reimburse them for certain 9 expenses they had incurred in fighting Windermere Watch without WSC’s support 10 and the further demand that WSC to comply with the Modification Agreement 11 going forward. (Sunderland Decl., ¶¶ 5-11; Deville Decl., ¶¶ 42-49.) WSC’s 12 citation to Deville’s deposition testimony to show that some agreement was in 13 place is taken out of context and omits Deville’s explanation of the relationship 14 and true understanding of any agreement between the parties and subsequent Errata 15 explanation. [Adams Decl., Ex. I (Deville Depo.), pp. 377:4-379:22, 381:2-5, 16 383:11-16,, Errata Sheet; Deville Decl., ¶ 48.] In short, Mr. Teather’s self-serving 17 June 3, 2014 letter did not excuse WSC from its obligation to make commercially 18 reasonable efforts to combat Windermere Watch.

19 In sum, the undisputed evidence shows that the B&D Parties were going to 20 leave the Windermere system but for WSC’s agreement to take commercially 21 reasonable effort to combat Windermere Watch. (Deville Decl., ¶ 20.) WSC’s 22 failure to take any effort until October 2013, and subsequent failure to take 23 commercially reasonable efforts, was a key contributor to the B&D Parties’ 24 decision to stop paying fees to WSC and to leave the Windermere franchise system 25 early. (Deville Decl., ¶¶ 50, 78, 85.) Moreover, WSC’s failure to take action 26 breached a material provision of the franchise agreements as amended by the 27 Modification Agreement and resulted in significant harm to the B&D Parties.
28 WSC’s breach excused the B&D Parties from any further performance under the 1 agreements. Moreover, even if the B&D Parties' performance was not excused, the 2 damages suffered by the B&D Parties should offset the amount of the writs that 3 WSC now seeks.

4 b. WSC's termination of the Area Representation 5 agreement excused the B&D Parties' performance under 6 the franchise agreements

7 Notwithstanding the B&D parties' contract claims for WSC's failure to 8 combat Windermere Watch, as described above, the majority of the damages being 9 sought by the B&D Parties in this action arise from WSC's termination of Bennion
10 and Deville's Area Representation Agreement. (See Adams Decl., Ex. L.) 11 Incredibly, WSC's Application ignores this critical issue and the resulting harm to 12 both Services SoCal and the franchisee entities. WSC's failure to address the 13 franchisee's related implied contract claims is fatal to its requested relief. Blastrac, 14 supra, 678 F. Supp. 2d at 1005 ("If an applicant fails to rebut a factually supported 15 defense that would defeat its claims, the applicant has not established the 'probable 16 validity' of those claims.").

17 As the Southern California Area Representative, Bennion and Deville were 18 entitled to a 50% reduction in all monthly license fees owed to WSC by their 19 franchisee entities. [Deville Decl., ¶ 52, Ex. 9.] Moreover, Bennion and Deville's 20 role as Area Representative ensured that their franchisee entities would be serviced 21 and supported by a competent Area Representative as provided for in the franchise 22 agreements.<sup>5</sup> [Deville Decl., ¶ 56.] This local service and support was a substantial 23 consideration for Bennion and Deville because WSC's headquarters was located in 24 Seattle, it did not have a presence in Southern California, and it was not in a

25 <sup>5</sup> The SoCal Franchise Agreement and addenda to the Coachella Valley 26 Franchise Agreement provided that Services SoCal was the designated "Area 27 Representative" that would be servicing and supporting B&D Fine Homes and 28 B&D SoCal in the Southern California region. [D.E. 72-6, Exs. C, F (see e.g., Recitals B, C.)]

1 position to support the Southern California franchise operations. [Id.] Ultimately, 2 Bennion and Deville built their entire franchise system and agent program upon 3 the understanding that they would receive (i) the 50% fee reduction, and (ii)
4 funding as an Area Representative to provide the service and support that WSC 5 could not provide. [Deville Decl., ¶ 57.] Bennion and Deville’s positions as both 6 the Area Representative and franchisees created a symbiotic relationship between 7 the Area Representative Agreement and the franchise agreements. [Deville Decl., 8 ¶¶ 59-60.] As explained below, WSC’s unlawful termination of the Area 9 Representation Agreement deprived Bennion and Deville of the fee reduction and 10 support that were implied benefits under the Coachella Valley Franchise 11 Agreement and SoCal Franchise Agreement.

12 In late summer 2014, Bennion and Deville learned of WSC efforts designed 13 to take the Area Representative rights from Bennion and Deville. As explained 14 below and in more detail in the concurrently filed declaration of Deville and 15 deposition testimony of Paul Drayna, this conduct by WSC constructively 16 terminated the Area Representation Agreement and excused the B&D Parties’ 17 payment obligations under the franchise agreements.

18 The contractual right to offer and sell Windermere franchises (and the 19 financial benefit that the sales derived) was a principal benefit to Services SoCal 20 under the Area Representation Agreement. [Deville Decl., ¶ 56, Ex. 9.] In August 21 2014, Bennion and Deville learned that WSC was depriving Services SoCal of this 22 right and benefit by failing to register its Southern California franchise 23 application.<sup>6</sup> [Deville Decl., ¶¶ 63-68, Ex. 10.] WSC’s failure to register the 24 Southern California franchise application precluded Services SoCal from being 25 <sup>6</sup>WSC’s general counsel, Paul Drayna, admitted that he did not register the 26 Southern California franchise application because he understood that WSC was in 27 the process of reacquiring the Area Representative rights from Bennion and 28 Deville. [Deville Decl., ¶ 67.] As is reflected in parties’ email exchanges, this was never relayed to Bennion and Deville. [Id., Ex. 10.]

1 able to offer or sell any Windermere franchises under California’s franchise laws.
2 [Id., ¶ 63] This right was never restored to Services SoCal. (Id.) WSC’s unilateral
3 termination of Services SoCal’s right and ability to solicit and sell Windermere
4 franchises resulted in the premature, constructive termination of the Area 5 Representation Agreement.

6 In addition to thwarting Services SoCal’s ability to sell new franchises,
7 WSC also engaged in conduct designed to disrupt Bennion and Deville’s 8 relationships with existing franchisees and to acquire the information and 9 technology developed by Bennion and Deville before Bennion and Deville left the 10 Windermere system. (Deville Decl., ¶¶ 69-77.)

11 It was apparent to all in the Windermere System that the technology and 12 services offered by Bennion and Deville were far superior to those made available 13 by WSC. Because of this, WSC knew that it had to acquire – and be able to offer 14 the Southern California franchisees – Bennion and Deville’s services and 15 technology before it could take the Area Representative rights from Bennion and 16 Deville. The evidence shows that through late summer and early fall 2014, WSC’s 17 Vice President, Michael Teather pushed Bennion and Deville to “combine our tech 18 companies, and put [Bennion and Deville’s Director of Technology] in charge of 19 the customer experience and have [WSC] pick up his salary.” [Deville Decl., ¶ 71, 20 Ex. 11.] After Bennion and Deville denied this request, Mr. Teather attempted to 21 solicit Bennion and Deville’s Director of Technology, Eric Forsberg, to leave 22 Bennion and Deville and to come work for WSC. [Id., ¶ 72.]

23 Further, the evidence shows that by summer 2014, Mr. Teather had begun 24 bypassing Bennion and Deville as the Area Representative for the Southern 25 California region and dealing directly with current and prospective Windermere 26 franchisees. [Id., ¶ 73.] As part of his direct communications with the Southern 27 California franchisees, Mr. Teather was telling them that Bennion and Deville 28 were “giving up” their right to serve as Area Representative in the Southern

1 California region and that all communications involving the region should be 2 directed to WSC. [Deville Decl., ¶¶ 73-75.] Mr. Teather also ingratiated himself to 3 the existing franchisees by approving of franchise locations and expansion plans 4 that Bennion and Deville had already rejected for legitimate business reasons. [Id.]
5 Throughout the remainder of Bennion and Deville’s short time as Area
6 Representative, Mr. Teather was surreptitiously informing the local franchisees 7 that Bennion and Deville were on their way out and that he, on behalf of WSC, 8 was taking over as the Area Representative. When the area franchisees later 9 learned from Bennion and Deville that they did not have any intention to give up 10 the Area Representative rights, this created tension between the parties. Again, this 11 conduct by WSC frustrated Bennion and Deville’s rights as Area Representative 12 and contributed to the early termination of the Area Representation Agreement.

13 As reflected above, WSC breached the Area Representation Agreement by 14 constructively terminating Bennion and Deville’s rights and ability to derive 15 benefits from the agreement. Due to the literal and implied integration of the Area 16 Representation Agreement with franchise agreements, the termination of the Area 17 Representation Agreement also constituted a de facto breach of the franchise 18 agreements. WSC’s failure to consider its termination of the Area Representation 19 Agreement as part of its Application is fatal to the requested writs.

20 2. Even without their affirmative claims, the B&D Parties were 21 still excused from performance as a result of WSC’s prior 22 material breaches

23 Before the writ may issue, the court must also find “absence of any 24 reasonable probability that a successful defense can be asserted by the defendant 25 [...]” San Diego Wholesale Credit Men's Ass 'n v. Superior Court, 35 Cal. App. 3d 26 458, 460 (1973). WSC fails to show the probable validity of its claims given the 27 B&D Parties’ affirmative and other defenses as outlined below.

28 First, the B&D Parties have asserted the affirmative defense of offset in

1 defense of WSC's counterclaims. [D.E. 32; See Jacobson v. Persolve, LLC, 2014
2 WL 4090809, at *9 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 19, 2014) (finding offset to be a viable 3 affirmative defense).] As explained above, in the unlikely event that the claims of 4 the franchisee entities are rejected, Bennion and Deville's Area Representative 5 entity, Services SoCal, continues to assert contract claims against WSC in an 6 amount that far exceeds those claimed by WSC. [See Adams Decl., Ex. L, Ex. A,
7 p. 1.] The evidence shows that WSC's termination of the Area Representation 8 Agreement – without cause, proper notice, or opportunity to cure – triggered 9 Section 4.2 of the Area Representation Agreement requiring WSC to pay to 10 Bennion and Deville the fair market value of the business. [Deville Decl., ¶ 55, Ex.
11 9.] The B&D Parties' damages expert, Peter D. Wrobel has identified the fair 12 market value of the Area Representation rights to exceed $2,592,526. [Adams 13 Decl., Ex. L, Ex. A, p. 1.] Thus, even if the B&D Parties' performance under the 14 franchise agreements was not legally excused by WSC's prior breaches, the 15 damages suffered by the B&D Parties' far exceeds that of WSC resulting in an 16 offset and defeating WSC's Application.

17         Second, the B&D Parties also have asserted the affirmative defense of 18 justification. [D.E. 32.] In short, the B&D Parties contend that WSC's contract 19 claims are barred in full or in part because the B&D Parties' alleged failure to 20 timely pay the franchise fees and departure from the Windermere system before 21 the conclusion of their five-year term were justified and were fair and reasonable 22 under all the circumstances based upon a balancing of all factors related to the 23 actions at issue. [Id.] In addition to the issues raised above, the declaration of 24 Deville also explains how the B&D Parties were justified in their conduct after 25 discovery that WSC was selling its preeminent technology to direct competitors in 26 the B&D Parties' geographic region. [Deville Decl., ¶¶ 79-85.] In particular, the 27 B&D Parties learned that WSC and/or its sister company, Windermere Solutions, 28 had entered into an agreement with the California Association of Realtors – the

1 largest membership of real estate agents in California – and that the TouchCMA 2 technology was sold to non-Windermere brokers in direct competition with the 3 B&D Parties agents and brokers in Southern California. [Id., ¶ 82.] This unfair
4 business practice, by itself, justifies the B&D Parties’ decisions to stop paying fees 5 to WSC and leave the Windermere system before the end of five years.

6 Third, WSC’s pursuit of writs of attachment against Bennion and Deville for 7 amounts allegedly owed to WSC for breach of the Modification Agreement 8 (Counterclaim 4) is flawed on two distinct grounds. First, WSC’s counterclaim for 9 breach of the Modification Agreement is asserted against B&D Fine Homes, B&D
10 SoCal, and Services SoCal – not Bennion or Deville. [D.E. 16, p. 29.]

11 Accordingly, WSC’s attempt to attach personal assets of Bennion and Deville in 12 connection with a claim that is not even asserted against them is in error. Second, 13 even if the alleged breach had been asserted against Bennion and Deville, the 14 language of the Modification Agreement makes clear that the amounts WSC is 15 seeking to attach were not personally guaranteed by Bennion or Deville. [D.E. 72-16 6, p. 80, § G (“neither Robert L. Bennion nor Joseph R. Deville shall be personally 17 liable for any of the amounts forgiven and/or waived pursuant to Sections 3, B (i)- 18 (iii) above”).] WSC’s attempt to attach Bennion and Deville’s personal assets for 19 amounts that they no longer personally guarantee is misplaced. Thus, because 20 WSC’s claim for breach of the Modification Agreement is not asserted against 21 Bennion or Deville, and Bennion and Deville were relied of any personal guarantee 22 over the amount WSC is seeking to attach, WSC’s Application with respect to 23 Bennion and Deville must be denied.

24 In light of each of these defenses identified above, WSC’s pursuit of writs of 25 attachment as to the B&D Parties should be rejected.

1           C.    WSC’s Claim Is Not For A Fixed Or Readily Ascertainable
2           Amount

3           An attachment can only be issued “in an action on a claim or claims for 4 money, each of which is based upon a contract, express or implied, where the total 5 amount of the claim or claims is a fixed and readily ascertainable amount not less 6 than five hundred dollars [...]” CCP § 483.010(a). Here, WSC fails to show, as it 7 must, that the amount alleged is a fixed and readily ascertainable sum.

8           First, WSC’s requested attachments are confusing and far exceed any 9 potential damages it seeks to recover in this case. According to the declaration 10 testimony of WSC’s CFO, Mark Oster, the total amount of damages that WSC is 11 seeking in this case is $1,354,407.49 plus attorneys’ fees and costs. [D.E. 72-7, p.
12 16.] However, review of WSC’s proposed attachment orders shows that it is asking 13 the Court to secure $5,754,887.55 in assets of the B&D Parties. [See D.E. 72-4, p.
14 2 (proposed attachment order against B&D SoCal in the amount of $698,495.31); 15 D.E. 72-3, p. 2 (proposed attachment order against B&D Fine Homes in the 16 amount of $1,501,744.72); D.E. 72-1, p. 2 (proposed attachment order against 17 Bennion in the amount of $1,777,323.76); D.E. 72-2, 2 (proposed attachment order 18 and against Deville in the amount of $1,777,323.76).] Thus, notwithstanding its 19 pursuit of only $1.3 million in damages, WSC seeks to attach more than $5.7
20 million from the B&D Parties. This request cannot be justified.

21           Next, WSC seeks to attach its entire attorneys’ fees and costs ($422,916)
22 against each of the B&D Parties, thereby multiplying the alleged debt of the B&D 23 Parties by 400% to more than $1.6 million. Again, the amount WSC seeks to attach 24 is far in excess of the claimed liability in this case.

25           Third, even without this clear intent to abuse of the writ of attachment 26 remedy, WSC fails to substantiate the attorneys’ fees it seeks to attach. To 27 calculate attorneys’ fees pursuant to a contract under California or federal law, 28 courts follow the “lodestar” approach, which is calculated by multiplying time

1 spent by a reasonable hourly rate. Cataphora Inc. v. Parker, 848 F. Supp. 2d 1064, 2 1069 (N.D. Cal. 2012); see also Signatures Network, Inc. v. Estefan, 2005 WL
3 151928 (N.D. Cal. 2005). To allow a court to calculate the appropriate attorneys' 4 fees to be awarded, a party must include itemization of the time spent and hourly
5 rate. See e.g. First Intercontinental Bank v. AEHCC LLC, No. CV11-08764, 2013
6 WL 12061878, at *4 (C.D. Cal. Apr. 25, 2013) (requiring party to submit briefing 7 on lodestar calculation and reasonableness of fees where party only submitted 8 invoices); see also Alan M. Ahart, California Practice Guide: Enforcing Judgments 9 and Debts, § 4:183(2012) (declaration should be provided showing the work 10 performed and amounts claimed to be due, as well as factual support showing 11 estimate of fees is reasonable). Here, WSC does not even attempt to substantiate 12 the fees it seeks to attach. In the declaration of WSC's attorney, Jeffery Feasby, 13 Mr. Feasby conclusory states: "As of September 30, 2016, WSC had incurred and 14 been billed for $405,860.52 in attorneys' fees for this matter." (Feasby Decl., ¶ 3.) 15 No invoices or other evidence is provided to substantiate this amount; WSC merely 16 asks the Court to take its attorney's word. This is not sufficient for WSC to carry 17 its burden for the attachment orders.

18 Finally, as reflected above, WSC's attempt to attach assets of Bennion and 19 Deville in connection with a contract (Modification Agreement) that is not 20 guaranteed by Bennion or Deville, or a claim (breach of the Modification 21 Agreement) that is not asserted against Bennion or Deville lays doubt on the entire 22 amount being sought by WSC.

23 For each of these reasons, the amounts WSC seeks to attach as to the B&D 24 Parties is not remotely ascertained, thus, the Application must be denied.

25
26 D. WSC Fails To Properly Identify The Property To Be Attached As 27 To Bennion And Deville

28 Under CCP § 484.020, an application for writ of attachment must include:

1 A description of the property to be attached under the writ of 2 attachment and a statement that the plaintiff is informed and believes 3 that such property is subject to attachment. [...] Where the defendant 4 is a natural person, the description of the property shall be 5 reasonably adequate to permit the defendant to identify the specific 6 property sought to be attached.

7 CCP § 484.020 (emphasis added). The subject of the attachment application is 8 entitled to claim an exemption from attachment as provided by the CCP. Cal.
9 Code. Civ. P. § 484.070(a). Courts order that applicants specifically identify 10 property sought to be attached to avoid hypothetical analysis of potential claims.
11 See Platte River Ins. Co. v. Premier Power Renewable Energy, Inc., No. 2:14-CV-12 1666-WBS-EFB, 2015 WL 5474344, at *6 (E.D. Cal. Sept. 17, 2015) (analyzing 13 claims of exemption only after ordering applicant-party to submit supplemental 14 briefing identifying specific property to be attached). Importantly, property outside 15 of California cannot be attached in a California action. Pacific Decision Sciences 16 Corp. v. Super. Ct., 121 Cal.App.4th 1100, 1108 (2004) (court lacks jurisdiction to 17 issue turnover order in aid of writ of attachment for out-of-state property); Paul H.
18 Aschkar & Co. v. Curtis, 327 F.2d 306, 310 (9th Cir. 1963) (no district court 19 attachment jurisdiction outside state despite the 1934 Securities Exchange Act 20 provision permitting nationwide service of process to obtain personal jurisdiction).

21 Here, WSC has failed to adequately describe the property it seeks to attach 22 as to Bennion or Deville. [See D.E. 72-1, p. 2; D.E. 72-2, p. 2.] The Applications 23 requests that the Court issue attachment orders for: “All property owned by 24 Counter Defendant: real property, personal property, equipment, motor vehicles, 25 chattel paper, negotiable and other instruments, securities, deposit accounts, safe 26 deposit boxes, accounts receivable, and general intangibles.” (Id.) This overbroad 27 description lacks sufficient specificity to place Bennion and Deville on notice as to 28 what property WSC seeks to attach. Without specificity, they would be forced to guess as to what property may be attached, leading to the hypothetical analysis of

1 claims of exemptions that courts seek to avoid. See Platte River Ins. Co., 2015 WL
2 5474344, at *6. As an example, WSC fails to distinguish between properties 3 located inside and outside California. Because property outside California is not 4 subject to attachment in this California action, this Court would be required to 5 analyze this application for attachment in hypothetical form. Pacific Decision
6 Sciences Corp., 121 Cal.App.4th at 1108; Paul H. Aschkar & Co., 327 F.2d at 310.
7 Accordingly, WSC has not met its burden and the Application should be denied.

9 E. The Attachment Is Sought For An Improper Purpose

10 Under CCP § 484.090(a)(3), a party seeking attachment must show that 11 “[t]he attachment is not sought for a purpose other than the recovery on the claim 12 upon which the attachment is based.” A writ of attachment is sought for an 13 improper purpose where the applicant seeks an amount that is excessive. See 14 Pimentel v. Houk, 101 Cal.App.2d 884, 886-888 (1951) (suggesting that an 15 allegation of an attachment of an excessive amount would constitute a sufficient 16 allegation of use of the process for an improper purpose); see also Fairfield v.
17 Hamilton 206 Cal.App.2d 594, 603 (1962) (noting in dicta that cases alleging 18 attachment for a greatly excessive amount have been treated as actions for abuse of 19 process).

20 In this case, WSC contends that the several B&D Parties are liable for 21 $1,354,407.49 plus $422,916.27 in attorneys’ fees and costs, totaling 22 $1,777,323.76. [D.E. 72-5 at 10; Feasby Decl., D.E. 72-9, ¶¶ 3, 4.] However, as 23 reflected above, WSC’s applications for attachment orders seek to attach 24 $5,754,887.55 total, or $3,977,563.79 more than the amount to which it claims to 25 be entitled. Surely, seeking to attach over three times the amount sought (and four 26 times the attorneys’ fees incurred) is prima facie evidence of an ulterior motive.

27 The reality is, WSC and the B&D Parties are competitors in a highly 28 competitive industry. [Deville Decl., ¶¶ 4-8.] It is evident by the filing that WSC

1 seeks to use its filing in its discussions with potentials clients, brokers, and agents 2 to spread the fallacy that the B&D Parties are insolvent or otherwise incapable of 3 paying their debts. [Id.] The amount WSC seeks to attach would be crippling to 4 most real estate businesses and is not a true reflection of its total claimed (but 5 unrealistic) damages in this case. WSC should not be allowed to abuse the court 6 process for its publicity objectives.

7 Because WSC seeks to attach an excessive amount that is not anything near 8 the amount claimed, its Application must be viewed as pursuing an improper 9 purpose. Accordingly, the Application should be summarily denied.

10 F. WSC Must Post A Substantial Bond If The Writ Of Attachment
11 Is To Issue

12 The writs of attachment cannot issue for all of the reasons set forth above. In 13 the event, however, that the Court is inclined to grant the requested writs, the writs
14 WSC seeks cannot issue unless it first posts a bond or undertaking. See CCP §§
15 489.210 & 489.220(a); see also Vershbow v. Reiner, 231 Cal. App. 3d 879, 882-83 16 (1991) (writ of attachment void ab initio if issued without bond). The purpose of 17 the bond is to secure the damages the B&D Parties may obtain should the 18 attachment later be found to have been improperly issued. The damages covered by 19 a bond include (1) all damages proximately caused by the wrongful attachment 20 (including loss of credit and business losses) and (2) all costs, expenses and 21 attorneys' fees reasonably expended in defeating the attachment. See CCP § 22 489.210 and comment thereto; CCP § 90.020(a)(1-2).

23 As reflected above, WSC has asked the Court to secure the total amount of 24 $5,754,887.55 notwithstanding its much smaller claim for damages of 25 $1,354,407.49. [D.E. 72-7, p. 16.] The undertaking should reflect the amount WSC
26 seeks to secure – i.e., $5,754,887.55. See CCP §§ 489.220(b), 490.010(b) (the bond 27 must be increased to account for the applicants failure to recover judgement).
28

1 III. CONCLUSION

2 For the reasons set forth above, the B&D Parties respectfully request that the 3 Court deny WSC's Applications for right to attach orders and writs of attachment.
